REFERENCE LEGISLATION

Italian Legislative Decree 24 February 1998 no. 58

Art. 126-bis (Integration of the agenda of the shareholders' meeting and presentation of new proposed resolutions)

1. Shareholders, who individually or jointly account for one fortieth of the share capital may ask, within ten days of publication of the notice calling the shareholders' meeting, or within five days in the event of calling the meeting in accordance with article 125-bis, paragraph 3 or article 104, paragraph 2, for the integration of the list of items on the agenda, specifying in the request, the additional items they propose or presenting proposed resolution on items already on the agenda. The requests, together with the certificate attesting ownership of the share, are presented in writing, by correspondence or electronically, in compliance with any requirements strictly necessary for the identification of the applicants indicated by the company. Those with voting rights may individually present proposed resolutions in the shareholders' meeting. For cooperatives the amount of the capital is determined by the statutes also in derogation of article 135.
2. Integrations to the agenda or the presentation of further proposed resolutions on items already on the agenda, in accordance with paragraph 1, are disclosed in the same ways as prescribed for the publication of the notice calling the meeting, at least fifteen days prior to the date scheduled for the shareholders' meeting. Additional proposed resolutions on items already on the agenda are made available to the public in the ways pursuant to article 125-ter, paragraph 1, at the same time as publishing news of the presentation. Terms are reduced to seven days in the case of shareholders' meetings called in accordance with article 104, paragraph 2 or in the case of a shareholders' meeting convened in accordance with article 125-bis, paragraph 3.
3. The agenda cannot be supplemented with items on which, in accordance with the law, the shareholders' meeting resolved on proposal of the administrative body or on the basis of a project or report prepared by it, other than those specified under article 125-ter, paragraph 1.
4. Shareholders requesting integration in accordance with paragraph 1 shall prepare a report giving the reason for the proposed resolutions on the new items for which it proposes discussion or the reason relating to additional proposed resolutions presented on items already on the agenda. The report is sent to the administrative body within the final terms for presentation of the request for integration. The administrative body makes the report available to the public, accompanied by any assessments, at the same time as publishing news of the integration or presentation, in the ways pursuant to article 125-ter, paragraph 1.
5. If the administrative body, or should it fail to take action, the board of auditors or supervisory board or management control committee fail to supplement the agenda with the new items or proposals presented in accordance with paragraph 1, the court, having heard the members of the board of directors and internal control bodies, where their refusal to do so should prove to be unjustified, orders the integration by decree. The decree is published in the ways set out by article 125-ter, paragraph 1.

Art. 135-decies (Conflict of interest of the representative and the substitutes)

1. The assignment of a proxy to a representative in conflict of interest is allowed provided the representative informs the shareholder in writing of the circumstances from which this conflict arises and provided there are specific voting instructions for each resolution relative to which the representative must vote on behalf of the shareholder. The burden of proof that the shareholder has been informed of the circumstances creating the conflict of interest lies with the representative. Article 1711, second subsection of the Italian Civil Code does not apply.
2. For the purposes of this article, there remains in any case a conflict of interest where the representative or the substitute:
 - a) Controls, even jointly, the company or is controlled by it, also jointly, or is subject to joint control with the company;
 - b) is associated with the company or exercises significant influence over that company or the latter exercises significant influence over the representative;
 - c) Is a member of the administrative or control body of the company or of the subjects listed in letters a) and b);
 - d) Is an employee or an auditor of the company or of the subjects indicated in letter a);
 - e) Is the spouse, relative or relative-in-law within fourth degree of the subjects indicated in letters a) to c);
 - f) Is linked to the company or to the subjects indicated in letters a), b), c) and e) by independent or subordinate relationships of work or by other relationships of a financial nature which compromise his/her independence.
3. The replacement of the representative with a substitute in conflict of interest is allowed only if the substitute has been recommended by the shareholder. In this case paragraph 1 applies. The obligations of communication and the relative burden of proof remain the responsibility of the representative.
4. This article also applies in the case of transfer of the shares by proxy.

Art. 135-undecies (Representative designated by the company with listed shares)

1. Unless the articles of association provide otherwise, the companies with listed shares designate for each meeting a subject to whom the shareholders can grant, by the end of the second stock exchange working day preceding the date established for the meeting, including for callings subsequent to the first, a proxy with voting instructions on all or some of the items on the agenda. The proxy is only valid for the individual proposals relative to which voting instructions have been granted.

2. The proxy is granted through the signing of a proxy form, the content of which is regulated by Consob with regulations. The assignment of the proxy does not entail any expenses for the shareholder. The proxy and the voting instructions can always be revoked by the deadline indicated in paragraph 1.
3. The shares for which the proxy, even partial, has been granted are counted to determine whether the meeting is duly formed. Relative to the proposals for which no voting instructions were granted, the shares are not counted to calculate the majority and the quota of capital required for the approval of the resolutions.
4. The person designated as representative is required to communicate any interest which, on his own behalf or of third parties, he/she has relative to the proposals of resolution on the agenda. He/she also maintains the confidentiality of the contents of the voting instructions received up to start of the counting, barring the possibility of notifying this information to his own employees and assistants, who are subject to the same duty of confidentiality. The party appointed as representative may not be assigned proxies except in compliance with this article
5. With the regulations listed in paragraph 2, Consob can establish the cases in which the representative who does not come under any of the conditions listed in Article 135-decies can express a vote different than the one indicated in the instructions.

Italian Civil Code

Art. 2393 (Directors' liability action)

1. The liability action against the directors is filed following resolution of the meeting, even if the company is in liquidation.
2. The resolution concerning the liability of the directors can be adopted at the time of the discussion of the financial statements, even if it is not included in the list of subjects to be dealt with, when it concerns events pertinent to the financial year to which the financial statements refer.
3. The liability action can also be presented following deliberation of the Board of Auditors, passed with a two-thirds majority of its members.
4. The action can be exercised within five years from the expiry of the director's term of office.
5. The resolution regarding the liability action involves the revocation from office of the directors against whom it is filed, provided it is taken with the favourable vote of at least one fifth of the share capital. In this case, the meeting takes care of replacing the directors.
6. The company can waive the exercise of the liability action and reach an agreement, provided the waiver and the agreement are approved with express resolution of the meeting, and provided there is not opposing vote of a minority of shareholders who represent at least one fifth of the share capital or, in the companies who use the risk capital market, at least one twentieth of the share capital, or the extent provided for in the Articles of Association for the exercise of the directors' liability action in accordance with the first and second paragraphs of Article 2393-bis.
