They may be re-elected.

The Shareholders’ Meeting shall decide on the number of Board of Directors members. The members of the Board of Directors must have the competence, integrity and independence requirements provided under applicable law; in particular, at least one of the Directors — or two if the Board of Directors is composed by more than seven members — must fulfill the independence requirements provided for Statutory Auditors under Art. 148, paragraph 3 (three), of Legislative Decree No. 58/98.

The Board of Directors shall be appointed, in compliance with currently applicable regulations in relation to the balance of genders, on the basis of slates presented in accordance with the following paragraphs. The candidates in the slate must be listed with a progressive number.

The outgoing Board of Directors is entitled to present slate as well as those shareholders who, alone or together with other shareholders, represent a total of at least 2% (two per cent) of the ordinary share capital with voting right at the ordinary Shareholders' Meeting, or representing a lower percentage where required by an applicable law or regulation in force. The ownership of numbers of shares necessary to present the slate has to be proven on the terms and in the manners set out by Law provisions. Each shareholder or shareholders belonging to the same group or who are connected, even indirectly, cannot — not even through an intermediary or trustee — present or contribute to the presentation of more than one slate. Each candidate may appear on only one slate, on pain of ineligibility. No candidate who is not in possession of the requirements set out in applicable laws may be included on the slate. The first and the second candidate on each slate must fulfill the independence requirements set out in applicable laws.

Slates which present a number of candidates equal to, or greater than, three must be composed of candidates belonging to both genders, in compliance with regulations and regulatory interpretation in force at that time concerning the genders balance.

The slate of the Board of Directors, if presented, must be filed with the Company's registered office within the thirtieth day before the date set for the Shareholders' Meeting and formally published in accordance with the terms of the following paragraph.

Without prejudice to the above, the slates must be filed with the Company's registered office and published in accordance with prevailing law. Together with each slate, within the above deadline, each candidate must file a declaration confirming his candidacy and certifying, under his own liability, that there are no reasons why he/she is ineligible or incompatible for the position and that he/she meets the requirements set out in applicable laws and this By-Laws. Together with the declarations, each candidate shall file a curriculum vitae describing his personal and professional characteristics, indicating his possible candidacy as an independent Director. Each person with voting rights may only vote for one slate. Any lists which do not comply with the aforementioned requirements shall be deemed not to have been presented.

For the election of the Board of Directors, the following procedure shall be observed:

(a) five-sixths of the Directors to be elected shall be chosen from the slate that obtains the majority of the votes cast, in the order in which they are listed on the slate; in the event of a fractional number, it shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number;

(b) the remaining Directors shall be taken from the other slates; for this purpose the votes obtained by the slates shall successively be divided by one, two, three and four according to the number of Directors to be chosen. The quotients thus obtained shall be assigned to the candidates on each slate in the order specified thereon. The quotients given to each candidate on the various slates will be given in a single decreasing ranking. Those who have obtained the highest quotients shall be elected. If more than one candidate have obtained the same quotient, the candidate from the slate that has not yet elected any Directors or that has elected the smallest number of Directors, shall be elected. All this is on the understanding that at least one director shall be taken from a slate, if presented and voted, presented by shareholders who are not connected, either directly or indirectly, with those who presented or voted for the slate that obtained the majority of votes cast.

If none of such slates has yet elected a Director or each of them have elected the same number of Directors, the candidate from the slate that obtained the largest number of votes shall be elected. If the different slates have received the same number of votes and their candidates have been assigned the same quotients, a new vote shall be held by the entire Shareholders' Meeting and the candidate obtaining the simple majority of the votes shall be elected.

In addition, if the election of the candidates by the means described above does not ensure a composition of the Board of Directors which complies with the currently applicable regulations concerning the balance of genders, the candidate of the most represented gender, who is elected last in progressive order within the slate that received the highest number of votes, will be replaced by the first candidate of the less represented gender, who is not elected from the same slate, according to the progressive order. This replacement process will be implemented until the composition of the Board of Directors complies with the currently applicable regulations concerning the balance of genders. Finally, if this procedure does not provide the result specified above, the replacement will be implemented by means of a resolution approved by a simple majority of the Meeting, following the submission of candidates belonging to the less represented gender.

If a single slate is presented, if no slate is presented or if the Board of Directors is not being elected in its entirety, the Shareholders' Meeting shall vote with the legal quorum required by applicable laws, in compliance with currently applicable regulations in relation to the balance of genders.

If an elected independent Director should lose his/her independence requirements, he/she shall give immediate notice to the Board of Directors and, in any event, shall resign from his/her office.

In case of any vacancy in the Board of Directors during the fiscal year, for any cause or reason, the Board of Directors shall proceed according to Art. 2386 of the Italian Civil Code. If one or more of the Directors no longer in office were taken from a slate which also contained the names of unelected candidates, the Board of Directors shall replace them by appointing, according to the progressive order, individuals from the slate of the outgoing Director, provided that such individuals are still eligible and willing to accept the office, and provided that (i) at least one of the members of the new Board of Directors – or two if it is composed by more than seven members – must fulfill the independence requirements provided under applicable law and (ii) compliance with currently applicable regulations pertaining to the balance of genders is ensured. If the majority of Directors appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting resign or fall from office for other reasons, the entire Board of Directors shall be deemed to have resigned. Such resignation is effective when the Board of Directors is reconstituted by persons appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting, which must urgently be called by the remaining Directors.

The Shareholders' Meeting shall determine the Directors' compensation pursuant to Art. 2389 of the Italian Civil Code. It may also decide a global amount of compensation payable to the Directors including those charged with special powers pursuant to last paragraph of the aforementioned article. In such a case, the Board of Directors, after considering the proposals of the relevant Committee and obtaining the opinion of the Board of Statutory Auditors, shall distribute between its members the global amount determined by the Shareholders' Meeting. The Directors shall be entitled to reimbursement of the expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

Article 15 – Chairman of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman from among its members if the Shareholders' Meeting has not already done so. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more Vice Chairmen.

Article 16 – Meetings of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall meet in Italy or abroad provided that the location is within the European Union, whenever the Chairman so requires or when written request is made by one or more managing Directors, or by at least three Directors in office, or the Board of Statutory Auditors or one of its standing members in the cases required by applicable law. The Chairman shall first state the matters to be discussed during the meeting and if necessary, with regard to the items on the agenda, shall ensure that adequate information on the matters to be discussed is provided to all Directors with due notice, taking into account the circumstances.

The Chairman shall determine the agenda of the meetings and coordinate the discussions; if the Chairman is absent or unable to attend, the meeting shall be chaired, in order of priority, by the longest-standing Vice Chairman or if two Vice Chairmen were appointed at the same time, by the oldest by age, or finally, if the Vice Chairmen are absent or unable to attend, by the Director appointed by the majority vote of those present.

The notice of meeting, to be sent by registered post, also by hand, fax or e-mail, at least 3 (three) days prior to the date set for the meeting, or in urgent cases at least 24 (twenty-four) hours before the date set for the meeting, must state the place and time of the meeting as well as the items on the agenda.

In the absence of the aforementioned requirements, the Board of Directors shall be deemed to have been duly convened in the presence of all the Directors and standing auditors in office. If the Chairman considers it necessary, the Board of Directors may hold its meetings by means of telecommunications media, in compliance with the conditions in the final paragraph of the foregoing Art. 11; if such conditions are met, the meeting shall be deemed to have been held at the location of the Chairman, where the secretary of the meeting must also be present, for the purposes of drafting the minutes.

The Auditors shall remain in office for 3 (three) fiscal years and their term shall end on the date of the Shareholders' Meeting convened to approve the Financial Statements for the third year of their office. They may be re-elected.

The Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors shall be appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting from the Auditors elected by the minority. If the Chairman is absent or unable to attend, he/she shall be replaced by the oldest auditor in terms of age.

The members of the Board of Statutory Auditors must possess the professional qualities, integrity and independence required under applicable laws. In particular, for the purposes of the provisions of Art. 1 paragraph 2, paragraphs B) and C) of the decree of the Ministry of Justice No. 162 dated 30 March 2000, the sectors of activity and subjects pertaining to the Company's area of operations shall be deemed strictly pertinent to the Company's sector, together with the subjects pertaining to legal, private law and commercial law, economic disciplines and those relating to the Company's sector of activity.

Subject to the situations of incompatibility set out by law, any individual holding the office of standing auditor in more companies than permitted under the rules and regulations applicable to companies listed on regulated Italian markets may not be elected as Auditor, and if elected shall immediately fall from office.

The Board of Statutory Auditors shall be appointed, in compliance with currently applicable regulations in relation to the balance of genders, on the basis of slates presented by shareholders who, alone or together with others, represent at least 2% (two per cent) of the ordinary share capital with voting rights or representing a lower percentage where required by an applicable law or regulation. The ownership of the numbers of shares necessary to present the slate must be proven on the terms and in the manners set out by Law provisions.

Each shareholder or shareholders belonging to the same group or who are connected, even indirectly, cannot – not even through an intermediary or trustee – present or contribute to the presentation of more than one slate. In the event of a tie between two or more slates, the oldest candidates by age shall be elected, until all the positions have been filled.

If the procedures described above do not ensure a composition of the Board of Statutory Auditors – in terms of its statutory members - which complies with the currently applicable regulations concerning the balance of genders, the necessary replacements will be implemented amongst the candidates for the office of standing Auditor within the slate which obtained the greatest number of votes and on the basis of the progressive order through which the candidates are elected.

If a single slate is presented, the candidates on the slate shall be elected as standing Auditors and alternate Auditors. If no slates are presented, the Shareholders' Meeting shall pass a resolution with the majorities required by laws, in compliance with currently applicable regulations in relation to the balance of genders. If an Auditor is replaced, the alternate Auditor shall be taken from the same slate as the outgoing Auditor.

The Board of Statutory Auditors shall meet at least every 90 (ninety) days. The resolution requires the vote in favor of the majority of standing Auditors in office, in order to be valid, and the vote in favor of the majority of those present. Attendance at meetings of the Board of Statutory Auditors may take place whenever the Chairman deems it necessary – using telecommunications media in accordance with the terms set out in the final paragraph of the foregoing Article 11.
